U6 Red vs Lidcombe Churches 9 - 0

From the moment the whistle blew, Guildford reds were in full swing getting the ball straight towards the goal with Ali scoring. Utkrist was always at his side ready to assist, both boys super fast and able to get around players swiftly. Each player had shots at goal and worked well getting the ball forward and not allowing any ball to get into our half. Mawien and Noah did some beautiful runs and both scored great goals. Our goalies had no action the whole game however Aleena, Josh and Zachariah all did well to stay focused. Ghani did well attacking and defending and Zachariah although was sick gave his absolute best today. The sportsmanship and great teamwork today really was exceptional. Player of the match was Noah for his ability to listen to instructions, being the best he could be both on and off the field and displaying a positive attitude towards his team and Lidcombe.

Goal scorers: Ali Dbouk 4, Mawien Deng 2, Noah Alouche 1, Ghani El Ekdawy 1, own goal 1

U6 White vs Wentworthville Uniting 0 - 5

The team played well together with many missed opportunities. Unfortunately we had only 5 players which did not help on the day and the game was lost 5-0.

Player of the match: Pablo (GK)

U7 Red vs Kings Old Boys

No report. Score unknown Goal scorers unknown.

U7 White vs Greystanes United 3 - 2

From kickoff, we were ready to play with Kayra making a break and scoring a great goal. With our full team today, it was a great opportunity for everyone to work on playing in position and focus on passing the ball to team mates. Michael and John held our defence well with Jeremiah and Emaan pushing the ball forward. Sudev, Xavier, Mithesh and Arad took turns and played strong midfield in a tough match. Emily started as goal keeper and had some great saves before taking the field for the second half. In the second half, John and Emaan after some great footwork both scored a goal each. Our player of the match was Emaan and the Encouragement award went to Sudev.

Goal scorers: Emaan Davodi 1, Kayra Mete 1, John Tawk 1

U8 Red vs Lidcombe Churches Gold 4 – 1

Today the kids played so well and they will only get better throughout the season! The opposition gained their first goal early on in the first half, but when our kids were able to work together as a team, we made sure that was their only goal for the match. Gabriel scored us our first goal breaking through their defence. Christian was on fire today and scored 2 massive goals in a row. We were glad he had his priorities in order today. Soccer first, Easter show bags second! Khoder and Ameer were great assistance on the front line and it was nice to finally see some ball passing and team work in play, which was the reason for our goals today! Sebasjin and Carissa played midfielders and put in a great effort. With Sebasjin out of goals, it was good to see him tackling the opposition. Carissa is building up more confidence and I'm sure we will see her come out of her shell in future games. Jawad was exceptional in defence. He never gave up on stopping every ball that came his way and chased down his opponents to ensure they didn't make it far enough to score. Antonio did well as keeper for the entire match, keeping out 2 goals. Aiden's big kicks and speed was a massive help in defence and once again, scored us our 4th goal with his accurate left footed power kicks! Well done Reds!! Player of the match: Jawad
Goal scorers: Christian Sleiman 2, Gabriel Aigbolola 1, Aiden Sorojevic 1

U8 White vs Kings Old Boys 5 - 1

Today the kids showed great sportsmanship and teamwork even though we were 3 players short and had to borrow 2. We had a few minor mistakes which we will need to work on in the coming trainings but overall a great outcome. The team maintained possession of the ball most of the game and if the opposition got in the way they were quick to get it back. Keep it up boys! Man of Match: Jonah Cicchini for being a brave first time goalie during 1st half and great defender in 2nd half. Goal Scorers: Mahmoud Hussein 2

U9 Red vs Wentworthville Uniting Blue 1 - 1

The team rallied from the start after Mardin was injured during warm up and welcoming in Carissa and Michael as subs. It was a fast paced match that saw the team needing to focus on their positions and work well as a team. Stefan, Brandon and Izaak worked well in defence with Yusuf and Lual pushing the ball forward. With some near misses at goal, the score could have been different but during the first half Yusuf was able to find the back of the net. Rodney and Zayd worked hard as goal keepers with some great saves. Carissa and Micheal both fit well into the team and both played strong. The Player of the Match went to Brandon for focusing on his position and protecting the back and the Coach's Award went to Lual for playing strong in his position and passing when near goal to create opportunities. We received good news after game that Mardin was well.

Goal Scorers: Yusuf Hadi 1

U9 White vs St Columbas Castle Hill 6 - 0

With 4 attempts at goal in the first 5 minutes the team was off to a promising start. 5-0 at first half before a fabulous goal by Alex. Great effort by Jacob and Mustafa who almost scored a goal each in second half.

Goal scorers – Daniel Alouche 3, Kaan Mete 1, Alex Azar 1, Yusif Saleem 1

U9 Onyx vs OLQP Falcons Blue 1 - 0

A tough game today but some crucial moments ensured that we came away with the win. Games are won and lost on crucial moments. Our goal came from excellent passing from the midfield and slotted in nicely by Nikolas. Straight after this Farouz saved a penalty shot (maintaining his clean sheet with penalties the last 2 seasons) and stopped a potential own goal in the second half by saving the ball from the goal line. Aiden led the defence and shut down many of the opposition's attacks. The Player of the Match was Moussa for his defensive efforts today, he did not stop running and tackling. Well done Onyx!

Goal scorer - Nikolas Dimitriou 1

U10 vs OLQP Falcons Red 4 - 1

A much better game this week. Everyone was more tuned into what the coaches had to say this week and that definitely showed. William, Husein and Hassan were amazing in the backs. They cleared the ball everytime and kept pushing the opposition offside. Akram, Charbel, Sunday and Mohammad all had great runs in the middle. Akram got himself in the right places and had some great passes. Mohammad was amazing on the left running the ball and getting in the right places, he had several shots of goal and was able to bag his first goal for the club (definitely not the last). Charbel played great as centre mid, he held the ball and set up multiple plays with smart passing. Sunday was lightening fast, he continuously ran around and away from his opposition and was unlucky not to score. Up front we had Xavier, Ali and Michael. All 3 had an awesome game. There were so many great passes between the 3. They didn't hog the ball and take all the glory they precisely took shots and passes between themselves and the midfield. Michael and Ali before had several excellent crosses into the middles and Xavier and Mohammad were able to finish 2 of those and 1 resulted in an own goal. Fidaa once again was amazing on goals. The opposition coach commented that he was one of the best goal keepers he has seen at this age. This game really showed what we can do as a team when we listen and work together and we are very proud of everyone's efforts today. Player of the Match- Xavier.

Goal Scorers- Mohammed Dbouk 1, Michael Kanaan 1, Xavier Bowman 1, Own Goal 1.

U11 Red vs Lidcombe Churches 2 - 0

We didn't know what to expect for this game, coach did a lot of thinking on positions and how to hold our defence. We had 11 players and no subs. Our midfield had to work really hard in both attack and defence. What an amazing effort by Adhar with playing striker and always dropping back to help defend. Some players had to play a position they hadn't played, however they played amazingly. Joeys fight for the ball and guidance to his teammates, kept the team powerful. Omad, holding sweeper, has really guided the defence team and used his voice effectively to push up fast. Omar played the full game in goals and saved some remarkable shots. What a keeper. The team really needs to be proud of themselves as this was a difficult game, they really held it together. Well done to the scorers Joey and Adhar! Player of the match : Anika for all her hard work on the wing.

Goal scorers – Joey Douehi 1, Adhar Yaac 1

U11 White vs Wentworthville Uniting Blue 0 - 4

We held strong today for the first half at 0-1, aside from a lone performance from their key striker, we were solid all over the park. Although we continued to try hard in the second half, inconsistent passing and a visible lack of energy meant we couldn't repeat the same strong performance from last week. Kids will no doubt lift from here for the next time we meet them again. Player of the match: Ryan Lu Coach's award: Mark Sorojevic

U12 vs Dundas United 8 – 2

It was a pretty great start to our season considering we only had enough players for a whole team and no subs. It seemed we had forgotten how to play soccer for the first 10 minutes of the game. We let our opponent Dundas get the first goal in within the first 5 mins. We pulled our heads out a bit and managed a score a couple of scrappy goals before finding our feet and coming out on top 4-2 by half time. In the second half we remembered how to play and didn't let the opposition score another goal and 4 more scored by us by end of full time. M.O.M for amazing Defence -Tom Allen

Goal scorers Hussan Mirzaei 2, Hussain Mirzaei 2, Joey Semaan 2, Ali Ekdawy 2

U13 Red vs Lidcombe Churches 2 - 0

Ali scored first goal within first 5 mins of the game. Seena saved several goals. Sebastian scored our second goal in second half. With only 9 players the team played really well under pressure. Man of the match – Anthony Germanos Goal scorers – Ali Karimi 1, Sebastian Kerr 1

U13 White vs Bye

U15 vs Greystanes FC 1 – 1

Nice to finally get to start our season. WE are still working out who plays where but it was nice to have Abulfazal and Ishan playing so well up front early and creating opportunities. Omid started brilliantly beating one and slotting a goal home as easy as you please with his first touches. In the midfield Edward was strong as was Aaran and our defence was generally good throughout, with a standout for mine (and my player of the match) being Mohamed Sangaaf. In the end we made enough chances to win the game but wasted all but the one.

Goal scorer – Omid Bahadori 1

U16/1 vs Wentworthville Uniting 3 – 2

Thank goodness you receive 3 points for a win no matter how you win because today wasn't as pretty as it usually is. Slow, casual start to the game showing little effort and letting Wenty find their footing, including a nice soft goal. It was only after they scored that we played properly and scored two straight after in quick succession. Unfortunately we went back into our shell and refused to get any ball first. Quite a shaky game but again 3 points is 3 points and we can have a real hard think about how we are going to play over the Easter weekend.

Goal scorers – Ibrahim Koroma 2, Mounir Hadid 1

U16/2 vs Lidcombe Waratah 5 – 1

The hard work at training paid off today with our first win for the season. Angelo, Navid & Ruben up front, with mid fielders Liem, Utsav & Omar created lots of opportunities, but all of shots went straight to the goalie. Navid finally put the ball into the back of the net with a nice shot only to have it pulled back for offside. Ruben got one on target wide of the goalie to get us on the score sheet. Omar got injured so Aurelly took his place in the midfield. Then we got a penalty in the box which Aurelly shot well beating the goalie low to his right. So we went into half time leading 2 nil. In the second half, Lidcombe pegged one back, before we got going again. Aurelly scoring twice more, one the goalie couldn't stop and the other from the left side of the box inside the right post. Ruben scored again after the goalie could not control the ball. The backline Baris, Helal, Baseel & William defended well as a unit with our goalie Joel solid and reliable as usual. The interchange bench of Aurelly, Victor and Sajed slotted in seamlessly when they were on the field. Player of the match: Utsav Sharma. He ran strongly, defended well, and provided a solid outlet to get the ball forward to the strikers.

Goal Scorers: Aurelly Geronimo 3, Ruben Yu 2

Raahauge Cup Firsts vs St Columbas Castle Hill 0 - 1

This week both teams were unfortunate in the results in a tightly contested match for both reserves & firsts. Both teams played St Columbus Castle Hill going down 4-1 with Salem scoring an amazing goal from the corner. The firsts fought well and narrowly lost in the closing minutes 1-0

Premier League Reserves vs St Barnabas Broadway 0 - 0

No one likes travelling to Tempe, in fact everyone hates it but we had 13 players there before Barnies had 1! Absolutely unheard of! Unfortunately the score doesn't reflect the way we played as we were all over them from the starting whistle. When we played the ball along the deck, it was lovely to watch getting Peter and Dicky free for shots on goal. Hakan was man of the match for controlling the backline and using his experience to read the plays of the opposition. Don't worry boys, on a bigger field like Everley, we will score plenty against these guys.

Premier League vs St Barnabas Broadway 1 - 2

I personally was unsure with how this game was going to go against the defending champs and with our new squad. However the first 10 minutes we were on fire and Barnies didn't know what hit them. Hunter scored in the first 5 and we unfortunately couldn't capitalise on a couple more opportunities. Barnies grabbed one back 15 minutes later which made it a really competitive game. We attacked for most of the game however a few decisions didn't go our way and a controversial decider was scored. Very positive signs though considering we still have boys injured/away and we played away. Man of the match - Sima

U12 Girls vs Parklea 1 - 2

We scored in the first 5 minutes and had the undefeated opposition rattled. They got a dubious goal just before half time. In the second half our scrambling defence kept us in the game but too much defending in the 18 yard box can lead to mistakes, albeit accidental, as the hand ball that lead to a penalty for the opposition to score their second and winning goal. We played well on the counter but could not fine an equaliser. Well played girls. The opposition know who we are now and will be better prepared for us. Players of the match Stella and Aroha for their great defence today. Encouragement award Taylor and Rhiannon.
Goal scorer – Annika Penitani 1

All Age Ladies vs Blacktown Workers 2 - 1

To know what happened today – read last week's report. Shaka was outstanding today, Nyanut added some much needed energy in the second half, Alicia improves every week, Amy keeps providing for Mika and Tahlia's determination and competitiveness were a huge part of our late second half energy.

Hard to really gauge how we played. The most important thing tonight was being respectful of our opposition who were a bunch of girls starting out and looking to enjoy their football. Unfortunately for them we finished our opportunities better tonight and they missed their penalty. It was delightful to see both Destiny H and Elise break their goal scoring hoodoo – with Elise bagging her first in 8 years. Is this a record? Congrats girls.
